

Clovia Hamilton
Speaker One Sheet

Clovia Hamilton founded Lemongrass Consulting in 2005 and has 30 years of professional experience in government as an attorney, engineer, planner, and public manager. Clovia has worked for the US Patent and Trademark Office, US EPA, US Army Corps of Engineers, Federal Highway Administration, Georgia Department of Transportation, City of Chicago, and City of Atlanta.

Clovia has taught business and law topics as an assistant professor, adjunct professor, and instructor at East Carolina University, Georgia Tech, Mercer, Clark Atlanta University, and Strayer University.

She has served as the Director of Intellectual Property and Research Compliance at Old Dominion University and as a Technology Transfer Specialist at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Lectures:

- The Start-Up 10 Step
- Copyrights, Trademarks, and Patents! Oh My!
- Fundamentals of Government Contracting
- Writing Bid Proposals
- Subcontracting to Primes
- Marketing to Government Agencies
- GSA Schedule Contract Proposals
- Small Business Certifications (WOSB, DBE, 8a, HubZone, SDVOSB)
- Strategic Planning
- Business Planning

Customized training can be accommodated! Clovia shares her experiences & speaks in layman terms which resonates well with her audiences!

Clients: www.lemongrassplanning.com/clients/

Testimonials: www.lemongrassplanning.com/testimonials/

Lemongrass Consulting
951 Gettysburg Way
Locust Grove GA 30248

Phone: 678-235-5901 E-mail: chamilton@lemongrassplanning.com

Wesleyan College, MBA
Expected Apr 2014

University of IL, LLM
Master of Laws
Intellectual Property Law

Former US Patent &
Trademark Office
Patent Examiner

Registered Patent
Attorney

Member Georgia Bar

John Marshall Law, JD

University of IL, BS
Engineering